- Owner: Schloss Fuschl Betriebe GmbH
- Additional buildings and remodelling: From November 2001 until October 2002
Due to the demolition of old buildings and the construction of two new buildings, the Jagdhof now consists of a troika: the present “Jagdhof” with restaurant and rooms, the main building “Gutshof” with public areas, seminar rooms, guest rooms, and a 450 m<sup>2</sup> ballroom with a view above lake Fuschl, as well as the additional guest room-, wellness-, and convention complex “Hüttererhof”. Hotel wings and underground parking are subsurface connected.
- General Director: Wolfgang M. Greiner
- Hotel Director: Kay Oliver Heller
- Chef: Thomas Reischl
- Original building: Around 1700
- History: The once huge 17th century farm belonged to the circumjacent buildings of the Salzburger archbishops` hunting residence Schloss Fuschl. In 1967 the Jagdhof was opened as a hotel, and in 1994 after a fire originally rebuilt. Also the reconstruction and expansion of buildings was accomplished with caution: the architectural is consistent with the typical style of the Salzkammergut and fits harmoniously into the landscape.
- Rooms: 143 guest rooms and suites

- Restaurants: Schützenstube, Hubertusstube, Jägerstüberl, Kutscherstube, Osteria, Paulaner Biergarten, lake terrace. Whether dining classy at the Schützenstube or enjoying cosy-traditional atmosphere at Hubertusstube and Jägerstüberl – the guest will experience affectionate Austrian hospitality. Chef Thomas Reischl offers typical Austrian delicacy as well as fresh fish from Lake Fuschl. The restaurant “Osteria” provides Mediterranean pleasures by offering Italian specialties.
- Events: 11 conference rooms – all with daylight, W-LAN, state-of-the-art equipment as well as direct access to the park respectively to the golf course of the hotel. Ballroom “Fuschlsee“ with approx. 450 m<sup>2</sup>.
- Sporting facilities: Hotel-own 9 hole golf course with a fantastic view curling alley
bowling alley
rifle shooting range
- Wellness: A 800 m<sup>2</sup> wellness area with swimming pool, sauna, a whirlpool within the main pool, steam bath, salt-water gallery, ice grotto, adventure shower, Kneipp basin and fitness room is located at the “Hütterhof”. The beauty team spoils “Her and Him” with exclusive cosmetic brands like “Shiseido”.
- Nature & Culture: The 12 km hiking trail round the romantic Lake Fuschl, whose unspoilt bank is a nature protection area, offers wonderful possibilities of walking or jogging. Guest also have the chance to go across the river by boat – with the “Fuschler Zille”. The cultural offering of Mozart`s city Salzburg, which is just 20 km away from Hotel Jagdhof, with concerts, theatre and the Salzburg Festival tops off the generous choices of the hotel.
